Special Friday Pre-Events

Fuente de Vida at the Border (cost $20)

8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

This will be a day of healthy conversations about the border and how we interpret who we are as the body of Christ.

The multiple political, humanitarian, and legal issues around the border are complex and not always easy to understand within the context of our faith. Fuente De Vida @ the Border offers participants a day to explore these issues from a faith perspective while building relationships with other Disciples and humanitarian workers and those with whom they accompany in Nogales, Sonora.

Participants will gather at and leave from Saguaro Christian Church at 8:00 a.m. expecting to return between 4:00 and 5:00 p.m.

Compassion Practice Forum (cost $10)

3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

Lead by Dr. Frank Rogers and Rev. Janis Brown, participants will be introduced to Compassion Practice and experience the practice with the opportunity to discuss and debrief. The Compassion Practice is one way to increase our capacity for self-compassion and compassion for other people. This way of radical compassion is the way of Jesus.

Dr. Frank Rogers is one of the developers of the Compassion Practice through the Center for Engaged Compassion, Claremont School of Theology. Rev. Janis Brown, an Arizona Disciples Minister and Chaplain, is a Compassion Practice facilitator.
