

Adopted November 5, 2016
BY-LAWS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH
(DISCIPLES OF CHRIST) IN ARIZONA, INC.*
(*Hereinafter referred to as the Region)

ARTICLE I THE REGIONAL ASSEMBLY

SECTION A. Purpose

Ultimate responsibility for the Regional Church shall be vested in the Regional Assembly, which shall normally meet biennially at a time and place agreed upon by the preceding Assembly or by the Mission Focus Team. The Assembly shall normally provide for worship, for the education of its members, for fellowship, and for the transaction of business by voting representatives from the congregations.

SECTION B. Membership

Includes all officially recognized congregations of the Region. Officially recognized congregations are Arizona congregations listed in the current Yearbook of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and those subsequently recognized in accordance with current regional policies for recognition. (Note: Those congregations that are currently congregations in formation in November 2016 will have membership privileges through the close of Regional Assembly of 2018 at which time congregations in formation must be chartered to be considered officially recognized congregations with privileges of membership.)

SECTION C. Voting

Members of officially recognized congregations shall have all privileges of the Assembly except that voting privileges shall be limited to the following:

1. Voting representatives from congregations. Each officially recognized congregation of the Region shall be entitled to seven voting representatives to the Assembly and two additional representatives for each one hundred participating members or major fraction thereof over the first one hundred as listed in the current Yearbook and Directory of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). These voting representatives from congregations shall not include ordained or licensed ministers, who are voting delegates.
2. Ministers serving or living in Arizona who have ministerial standing in the Region. Such standing is determined by inclusion in the current Yearbook and Directory listing or approved for standing by the Arizona Commission on the Ministry.
3. Members of the Administrative Council and Mission Focus Team, not otherwise having voting privileges.
4. Representatives from other church bodies as approved by the Regional Assembly.

SECTION D. Notifications

The Regional Minister and President and/or Moderator shall insure that each congregation will be notified of the number of voting representatives to which it is entitled six weeks prior to the opening of the Assembly. Each congregation shall file with the specified Regional Staff the names of its representatives before the opening of the Assembly.

SECTION E. Nominations

1. All officially recognized congregations will be invited to nominate officers and other elected

- positions. These nominations will be submitted to the Nominating Committee
2. The Region and its leaders will strive to be inclusive and seek to provide a balance (male, female, clergy, lay, ethnic, geographical, congregation, gifts and skills) when filling positions.
 3. The Moderator, in consultation with the Regional Minister and President, will appoint a Chair and members of the Nominating Committee to be comprised of 2 members of Administrative Council, 2 members of Mission Focus Team and at least 5 additional members.
 4. The committee shall submit to the Assembly one nominee for each of the following offices: Moderator; Vice-Moderator; Treasurer; Secretary; and 5 members-at-large of the Administrative Council and 5 members-at-large of the Mission Focus Team.
 5. Congregations will be notified in writing of the list of nominees at least 60 days prior to the Assembly.
 6. Nominations for regional officers may be made from the floor of the Assembly, with the provision that any nominee has given prior consent to submitting his/her name in nomination and that such nomination shall be to replace a specific nominee and of the same position.

SECTION F. Resolutions

1. Resolutions proposing policy or position statements, topics for study or similar proposals may be submitted for consideration by the Assembly to the Resolutions Committee.
2. Resolutions may be submitted by an officially recognized congregation, a regional commission or ministry team, or any group of ten or more members of the Region, and must be received by the Regional Office not less than 100 days prior to the Assembly. No other resolutions, except those of an emergency nature, may be brought before the Assembly for official action. The Administrative Council may edit or revise any resolution, or may combine two or more resolutions, so long as the intent of the original resolution is not changed. The Administrative Council shall recommend approval, referral, or rejection of the resolution.
3. The Administrative Council will serve as the Resolutions Committee.
4. Congregations will be notified in writing of resolutions to be considered at least 60 days prior to the Assembly.
5. Emergency resolutions are those of such nature that they could not be filed 100 days prior to the Assembly. They may be brought before the Assembly if a simple majority of the Administrative Council present and voting reviews and concurs that they have met the emergency resolution criteria.

SECTION G. Emergency Regional Assembly

1. An Emergency Session of the Regional Assembly may be called by either Administrative Council or the Mission Focus Team. The Regional Minister & President and/or Moderator shall notify each recognized congregation in writing of the time, place, and purpose of the session no less than 30 days in advance, and request each officially recognized congregation to file the names of its voting representatives with the specified Regional Staff before the announced date of meeting.
2. Should the Administrative Council or Mission Focus Team decide that pending business can be decided without a meeting of voting representatives, the Regional Minister & President and/or Moderator shall poll all who have voting privileges, setting a deadline after which mailed votes shall not be counted. Polling shall provide voters an opportunity to request convocation of voting representatives for discussion before the vote is taken. When one-third of polled voters so request, the Moderator will call an Emergency Assembly session.
